

January 18, 2026
Epiphany 2

Welcome to long-time Lutherans, to Christians from every tradition, and to people new to the faith.

Welcome to you who have no church home, or who want to follow Christ, have doubts, or do not know for sure what you believe.

Welcome to new visitors and old friends

Welcome to people of every age and size, color and culture, every sexual orientation and gender identity, socio-economic status, marital status, ability and challenge.

We welcome your questions and your beliefs

Welcome to Lebanon
All are welcome in this place

Readings for today : Isaiah 49:1-7; Psalm 40:1-11;
1 Corinthians 1:1-9; John 1:29-42.

Readings for next week: Isaiah 9:1-4; Psalm 27:1, 4-9;
1 Corinthians 1:10-18; Matthew 4:12-23.

Try reading these ahead at home and see if you can find what holds them together.

We need a volunteer reader for Sundays.

Take home - Prayer Ventures January 2026

These petitions are offered as guides to prayer for the global, social and outreach ministries of the ELCA. Thank you for your continued prayers for the life and mission of this church.

18 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity “There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all” (Ephesians 4:4-6). Pray with our siblings in Christ around the world that we will find strength and joy in knowing that we are of one body in Christ that is not confined or divided by individual institutions or leaders, religious traditions, cultures or denominations.

19 Martin Luther King Jr. Day Give praise and thanks to God for courageous saints of the past and present who help bring about change. Pray that we value one another as children of God and that we are bold and persistent in confronting racism, injustice and inequity.

20 Remember in prayer ELCA campus ministries and the Lutheran Campus Ministry Network (LuMin), inclusive faith communities on college and university campuses across the United States that nurture the faith of young adults through worship, study, fellowship and service. Give thanks for congregations that support and partner with campus ministries.

21 “I have not hidden your saving help within my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness” (Psalm 40:10). How can we keep the good news to ourselves? Pray for enthusiasm and the courage to share the story of our salvation and faith — God’s story — through our words and actions. Let us give thanks for how the Spirit equips us for such work.

22 Pray for nations at war that are on the verge of peace and for those for whom a vision of peace is not yet clear.

23 Pray for partnerships that help spread the gospel and provide love and care for our neighbors and siblings in Christ, including companion churches, full communion partners, the Lutheran World Federation, ecumenical and interfaith organizations, Lutheran Services in America’s network, Global Refuge, the World Council of Churches and others.

24 Remember in prayer Lutheran outdoor ministry leaders who are recruiting young adults to serve in summer camp programs and are planting seeds of invitation in those who are unsure of how their faith, gifts and passions can be used to serve children, youth and adults of diverse abilities and backgrounds.

Want to help celebrate the 250th anniversary of the birth of our nation? Come join the White Lake Chorale as we prepare a patriotic program for our spring concert! We especially encourage singers who have served in the military to give us a go!

The Chorale will be among choirs across the United States “uniting in harmony to renew democracy’s promise” under the umbrella organization Sing Democracy 250. According to its website, the music program for Sing Democracy 250 was developed by co-founders, Gary Aamodt and Celia Ellingson, and commissioned by Together in Hope Project. The full program includes two new major compositions by American composers: “Redeem the Dream” and “US,” as well as “The Star-Spangled Banner” and “Lift Every Voice and Sing.”

“Redeem the Dream” is based on Langston Hughes’s 1935 poem “Let America Be America Again.” The poem reflects on the gap between the ideals of American democracy as articulated in the Declaration of Independence and the reality experienced by many people over our history. Yet the poem ends with hope that America can live up to its promises of freedom, equality, and opportunity for all.

“US” is based on Richard Haass’s book, The Bill of Obligations: The Ten Habits of Good Citizens. The text for this composition was developed and integrated by Celia Ellingson and Gary Aamodt, co-founders of Sing Democracy 250 and the Together in Hope Project, in coordination with Richard Haass.

Calling Sing for Democracy “a stirring musical odyssey commemorating the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence,” organizers anticipate participation by choirs throughout the land. White Lake Chorale will augment the Sing Democracy 250 program with its own favorite patriotic songs for the spring concert.

Anyone of high school age or older is invited to join the Chorale for this stirring session, reminiscent of our Salute to the Military several years ago. Rehearsals begin Monday, January 19, at Lebanon Lutheran Church, 1101 S. Mears, Whitehall. Singers are asked to arrive at 6:30 p.m. to pick up music and pay the $40 registration fee. Rehearsal will be 7-9 p.m. Scholarships are available. If you can’t make it on the 19th, come to Montague High School at 7 p.m. the next Monday, January 26.

For further information contact the Chorale manager at whitelakechoraleinfo@gmail.com.
